

NEWS RELEASE

June 28, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

US Aviation and KBR Wyle Aircrew Training and Services Graduate Lt. Kelvin Ichangai of Kenya, Africa

US Aviation, in cooperation with prime contractor KBR Wyle Aircrew Training and Services is honored to announce the assignment of Lt. Kelvin Ichangai (pictured far right) to Vance AFB in Oklahoma. Lt. Ichangai trained at US Aviation’s GYI facility in May of 2017 for Initial Flight Orientation as part of the multi-aircraft flight training contract with the Department of Defense (DoD) and the 338th Specialized Contracting Squadron, Randolph AFB, San Antonio – Randolph, Texas.

US Aviation Program Manager and spokesperson, Mark Taylor stated, “We are honored to work with KBR Wyle and the DoD to assist in the training of our allied nations and we are especially proud of Lt. Ichangai for his personal achievements in aviation.”

US Aviation contracts with KBR Wyle and the DoD to provide Initial Flight Orientation to allied forces that include an introduction to the principles and techniques used in basic flying operations and ground school training for various platforms. For more information on US Aviation Academy, please contact Scott Sykes @ ssykes@usaviation.aero or visit our website: (www.usaviationacademy.com)